

Life is war!

There are probably few things further from the mindset of many 21st Century British Christians than the thought that life is war.

And yet the Bible makes it absolutely clear that from the moment of conversion until death or Christ's return the Christian is at war.

And this war is like none other: at stake is not country or human rights, but rather the human soul and the glory of God.

And God has designed and given us perfect armour for our protection and in order that we can fight and win—so why are so few wearing it?
